The Quilters' Guild – Direct Debit Form

Direct Debit: please complete ALL parts of the form in ball point pen. We cannot accept photocopies or forms that have been amended with Tippex or crossing out. Please ensure that:

- You are clear which parts of your membership subscription you would like to be included in your Direct Debit.
- You provide all the required information regarding your bank and your bank account
- You have signed AND dated the form.
- Please do not write anything in the Reference boxes
- The Guild collects Direct Debits on the 1st of each month. Forms must be returned by the 12th of the month before the Direct Debit is due.

Please note: If you have already joined a specialist group and paid for it by cash, cheque, online, etc., we cannot automatically add this to your Direct Debit instruction. You will need to complete and return a new Direct Debit form that confirms everything you want to be included on your Direct Debit.

If any part of the form is incorrect we will not be able to set up your Direct Debit and will need to return the form to you for completion. We are not allowed to make any changes on your behalf.

Once we have set up the Direct Debit we will write to you with 10 working days' notice confirming when the payments are due. You can cancel your Direct Debit at any time – please do this with your bank and please advise us that you have done so.

Banks and building societies may not accept Direct Debit Instructions for some types of account.

This Guarantee should be detached and retained by the payer.

The Direct Debit Guarantee

- This Guarantee is offered by all banks and building societies that accept instructions to pay Direct Debits
- If there are any changes to the amount, date or frequency of your Direct Debit, The Quilters' Guild will notify you 10 working days in advance of your account being debited or as otherwise agreed. If you request The Quilters' Guild to collect a payment, confirmation of the amount and date will be given to you at the time of the request
- If an error is made in the payment of your Direct Debit, by The Quilters' Guild or your bank or building society, you are entitled to a full and immediate refund of the amount paid from your bank or building society
 - If you receive a refund you are not entitled to, you must pay it back when The Quilters' Guild asks you to
- You can cancel a Direct Debit at any time by simply contacting your bank or building society. Written confirmation may be required. Please also notify us.
